Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the people of Israel, saying, "This is what the LORD has commanded. If a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth."

"Applying the same approach here, we may observe that the Lord has perfectly fulfilled the demand of Numbers 30:2 to carry out every promise or oath he has made and to do everything that proceeds from his mouth. Here is an anchor for Israel's soul: the Lord is faithful to do everything he has promised."

-Iain M. Duguid

"Yet like the wife and daughter of Numbers 30, she was not free to make such oaths and rashly bind herself to them. Unless the Lord were to ignore her oaths or to divorce her or were himself to die—all equally unthinkable alternatives—her foolish oaths could never stand. Israel might seek to become like the nations all around her and worship gods of wood and stone, but her desire could never be achieved. As long as the Lord was her covenant head, he would step in and nullify her oath, freeing her from her folly."
